Men's Bible Study

The Men's Bible Study is every Monday evening at the Browns' home from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM. Men of all ages who are serious about studying the Bible are invited to attend. For details, see Bob Brown.

Lake Park Chapel Christmas Party

On Sunday, December 10, there will be no evening meeting here at SBC. Instead, everyone is invited to the annual Christmas Party at Lake Park Chapel in Belle Chasse beginning at 6:30 PM. For details & directions, see Bob Brown.

Men's Meeting & Prayer

The men of the assembly will meet at 7:00 PM on Monday, December 11, at the Browns' home, to pray for the events of next month. The Men's Bible Study will follow.

Scotch Auction

On Saturday, December 9, at 7:00PM our annual Scotch Auction will be held at a location to be announced. Bring a "Hand Made" gift to participate in the auction. Bring friends! It will be a great time for food, fun, and fellowship. Come and have fun.

Scott Leach

On Sunday, December 10, Scott Leach will minister from God's Word in our meetings. Scott is from Prattville, Alabama. He serves as an elder at Central Bible Chapel, Millbrook, Alabama. Please, make Scott and his wife Kathy welcome as always.

Sunday School Christmas Program & Caroling

On Sunday, December 18, we will have our annual Sunday School Christmas Program during the Family Bible Hour. That evening we will gather for Family Caroling at 6:00 PM. We will go to a nearby neighborhood to carol. Afterward we will gather for fellowship and refreshments. For details or how you can help, see Rob Kiviah.

Family Day

Sun., December 24, is Family Day at Slidell Bible Chapel. The Worship meeting will be moved to 9:00 AM. Invite family members and friends to come join us for the continental breakfast at 10:00 AM followed by the Family Bible Hour.

Heaven's Song

Our glorious Lord is the foundation of all the work of God in every age; the source of every blessing for His people of all times; the unique element of cohesion in the whole universe; whether physical or spiritual, historical or moral, on Him everything depends. He is the One in whom: "all the fullness was pleased to dwell" (Col. 1:19); "in him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily" (Col. 2:9); who is the visible form of the invisible God (Col. 1:15).

This One is the exact expression of the personality of God (Heb. 1:3); who ascends to glory as "this same Jesus"; who will come again exactly as He went away (Acts 1:11); and who is "the same yesterday, and today, and forever" (Heb. 13:8). What He was in the past, both in eternity and in time, He is today, and shall be forever.

Only as our eyes, minds, and hearts are filled with Him in all His love, power, holiness, majesty, and total worthiness can our lives as Christians ever be what God wants them to be. Only then can we know true satisfaction, joy, and peace. Only while beholding Him as He truly is, in all His transcendental power and beauty, shall we find fulfillment and fruit in our service. Only while we are completely occupied with Him, and not questions about Him shall we know what true worship is.

It is the One who now walks among the churches in all the majestic wisdom of "the Ancient of Days," who sees everything, knows everything, can do everything, and is everything (Rev. 2 and 3). And it is the very same One who is seen "in the midst of the throne and of the 24 elders, and of the four living creatures," in Revelation 5, the very seat and center of Godhood and to whom Heaven, Earth, and Hell are prostrated while the redeemed of the Lord chant with the music of the heavens, "THOU ART WORTHY!"
